

Dr. Jaime Ulloa

Dr. Ulloa graduated from the Universidad Autónoma de Centro América in Costa Rica in 1985. He completed his residency specializing in orthopedics. Later he completed a fellowship in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic in 1993. His private practice focuses on trauma, knee surgery and sports medicine and his experience is extensive. Dr. Ulloa delivers high-quality care using the latest technology in knee replacement surgery. He participates actively in a variety of medical organizations: the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, the International Society of Arthroscopy, the Warthog Society Knee Surgery (ISAKOS), and the Orthopedic Sports Medicine.