

Zdena Stratilova, M.D.

Specialist in the corrective dermatology and laser aesthetic surgery corrective dermatology and a laser aesthetic surgery

A graduate in medicine, MU MF Brno - general medicine, attestation in the pathology-anatomy, imunohistology, dermatovenerology and corrective dermatology.

Up to 1992 working in the Teaching Hospital at St. Anne, Brno - Institute of Pathological Anatomy I - as an independent doctor and professional assistant, then until 2000 employed in the Teaching Hospital Brno - Bohunice, A Clinic of Dermatology II.

Licensed in: the morbid anatomy, dermatovenerology, corrective dermatology, authorized to administrate the post of the expert representative to the IMI and the guarantor in the dermatology, corrective dermatology and laser aesthetic surgery.

In 2000, MD Stratilová was licensed with the 004 registration number certificate, issued by the Czech Society for a Laser Medicine and Surgery, the laser aesthetic surgery section.

She actively partakes in the international conferences focused on an aesthetic medicine and plastic and aesthetic surgery.

1998 - Paris, France

1999 - Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

2000 - Monte Carlo, Monaco

2000 - Bonn, Germany

2001 - Nice, France

2001 - Tokyo, Japan

Specialization - the aeasthetic face surgery, hair transplantation, skin implant application for correction of wrinkles and recessed scars, lips augmentation with Rofilan and Reviderm, correction of the mimic facial wrinkles with botulotoxin. MD Stratilova is skilled with a CO2-laser, expert on sclerotization and treatment of minor varicose veins, removal of veinlets from face and chemic peeling.

MD Stratilova is also a specialist in the skin desease treatment, including the skin tumours