

Dr. ARUN GROVER

BDS, MSc. (London, UK) DDPHRCS (England), MIAID, FAGE

Dr. Arun Grover attended College of Dental Surgery, Mangalore, India from 1990 - 94 and after completion of the compulsory rotating internship by October 1995 obtained his 'Bachelor of Dental Surgery' (BDS) degree in FIRST CLASS from Mangalore University / Manipal Academy of Higher Education.

He further attended Guys, Kings & St. Thomas' Dental Institute & Hospital, Kings College London, UK from 1998 - 99, and was awarded the Master of Science (MSc.) degree in Dental Public Health by the University of London, UK in 1999. Additionally, he also obtained the Diploma in Dental Public Health (DDPHRCS) of The Royal College of Surgeons of England in 1999

Dr. Arun Grover has been a recipient of the Department For International Development (DFID) Award for the year 1998-99. The award was given jointly by the Association of Commonwealth Universities, UK and Kings College London, UK; on behalf of the DFID.

Dr. Arun Grover is a Member / Fellow of various professional organisations including the Academy of Oral Implantology (India), Indian Academy of Implant Dentistry (IAID), Indian Association of Medical Informatics (IAMI), Academy of General Education (AGE), Kings College London Alumni Association.

He is also an Affiliate Member of the American Dental Association.