

Dr. Sumit Singh
(MD, DM Neurology (AIIMS))

A topper in DM neurology at All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS), New Delhi, Dr Sumit Singh was awarded the “BL Soni Gold Medal” for being the best Resident in Neurology. He was Associate Professor of Neurology at AIIMS since the year 2000, where he started the first headache clinic in north India at AIIMS in 2002. He also established the Neuromuscular disorders centre at AIIMS and is known for his contribution in the field of Movement disorders. He initiated the use of botulinum toxin in Headache for the first time in the country, and extended its usage in trigeminal Neuralgia. He was also involved with using Botulinum toxin in Spasticity, Limb dystonias and facial and limb dyskinesias, spasmodic dysphonias and writer’s cramps. Dr Sumit has been with Deep Brain Stimulation Program for Parkinson’s disease at AIIMS and was involved in intraoperative assessment and post operative programming of these patients. He has innovated the plasma exchange protocols for AIDP, Myasthenic crisis, Polymyositis, and has introduced the same for Multiple Sclerosis for the first time in the country. Dr Sumit has more than 80 publications in National and international journals and has written several chapters in books. His main areas of interest are Movement disorders, headache and Neuromuscular disorders.

Dr Sumit Singh is available for consultation and clinical services at Medanta – the medicity, Gurgaon.

Current Appointments

Senior Consultant Neurology, Medanta – the Medicity, Gurgaon.

Education and Training

Medical School

MLB Medical College, Jhansi, Uttar Pradesh, India.

Neurological Residency

LLRM Medical College, Meerut

All India Institute of Medical sciences, New Delhi, INDIA

Memberships

- International Headache Society
- Movement Disorders Society.
- Indian Academy of Neurology.