

EDGAR SALAZAR

MD

Brief Introduction

Edgar Salazar, MD earned his medical degree at Juarez University located in Durango, Mexico and his Orthopedic Preceptorship in Sports Medicine at the Christus St. Joseph Hospital in Houston, Texas. In his years of experience he has studied at the Baylor Sport Medicine Institute in Texas and the West Coast Surgical Skills Training Center in Los Angeles. His areas of specialty include Sports Medicine, Shoulder and Knee Surgery. He has trained in Advanced Surgical Treatment of Shoulder Instability, Rotator Cuff Tears, SLAP and Bankart Repair, Acromioplasty and Biceps Tenodesis, Advanced Surgical Treatment of the Unstable Knee, and ACL and PCL Reconstruction.

Languages

Spanish, English

Education and Training

Medical School

Juarez University (UJED) at Durango, México. 1992 -1996

Social Service

Public Social Service at Durango, México. February.1998 – January.1999

Residency and Surgical Training

- XLIII University Extension Course at Medical School University La Salle, Mexico City, May to September.1998
- Trauma and Orthopedic Specialty – Hospital Universitario and Christus Muguerza Mar. 2000 - Feb. 2004
- Orthopedic Preceptorship – Sports Medicine at Christus St. Joseph Hospital, Houston Texas, August – October. 2003

Internship

General Hospital S.S.A. at Durango, Mexico. January.1997 – December. 1997

Professional Exam

Medical School Juarez University March 13, 1998

Fellowships

- Sport Medicine (shoulder and knee Surgery),Houston, Texas (April to September 2004)
- Baylor Sport Medicine Institute, Methodist hospital and Baylor College of Medicine, 1 de April al 9 de July de 2004
- Christus St. Joseph Hospital, 12 de July al 30 de September de 2004

Others

Arthrex Certificate of Completion (March 29-30, 2005)

- Cadaveric Training on Advanced Surgical Treatment of Shoulder Instability Rotator Cuff Tears
- SLAP and Bankart Repair
- Acromioplasty and Biceps Tenodesis
- Impingement Syndrome & Advanced Surgical Treatment of the Unstable Knee
- ACL & PCL Reconstruction
- Osteochondral and meniscal Lesions Repair and Tibial Opening Wedge Osteotomy With Puddu Plate at the Arthrex West Coast Surgical Skills Training Center in Los Angeles California.

Certificate of Training (July 12-13, 2005)

Arthroscopy of shoulder and knee - Florida Hospital Celebration