

Dr. Javier Baidón Romano

Dr. Baidón graduated with a degree in medicine from the Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara. He completed his residency in traumatology and orthopedics in the Instituto de Seguridad y Servicio Social de los Trabajadores Del Estado (ISSSTE), a public entity that provides medical services. Throughout his career, he has participated in continuing medical education conferences in San Francisco, Anaheim, Orlando, Dallas, New Orleans and Washington, D.C. Dr. Baidón is a member of the American Academy of Orthopedics, Arthroscopy Society of North America, Mexican Association of Traumatology and Orthopedics, Shoulder and Elbow American Society, Mexican Council of Orthopedics, and the Medical Federation of Sonora.