

Dr. Javier Garcia

Diploma in Plastic Surgery, Microsurgery and Reconstructive Surgery in San Diego School of Medicine,

Davies Medical Center in San Francisco in California and Stanford Medical Center.

Physician, with the Specialty Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at the Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico. (UNAM) Interested in constantly updated has extended

For their continued work has been appointed associate professor at various specialization courses in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at the Hospital of Specialized Medical Center West and seconded to the service of Reconstructive Surgery of the Pediatric Hospital in Guadalajara and in the service of Surgery of the Hand General Hospital in the city of Guadalajara.

He has lectured in various presentations in Mexico and abroad about: surgery on cleft lip and palate, reconstruction of heel, plastic surgery and aesthetics.

He is currently a member of the Mexican Association of Plastic Surgery, Aesthetic and Reconstructive, a member of the Association of Plastic Surgeons of Jalisco, of the Association of Plastic Surgery of Baja California, as well as the Iberoamerican Federation of Aesthetic and Plastic Surgery.

Since the start of the exercise of his profession, Dr. Garcia has been concerned with putting scientific and technical progress of patient service. Today is devoted exclusively to cosmetic surgery for it, with a high sense of responsibility and professionalism, offers the most avant-garde, secured and safe for their patients.