

Dr. Marcos José Serrato Félix

Dr. Serrato attended the University of Monterrey graduating with a medical degree. Continuing his education, he completed an internship at the Hospital General del Estado de Sonora, a one year training in intensive care at the Hospital Universitario Angel Leño of the Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara, and a residency in general surgery during which he served both as vice chief and then chief of residents. Dr. Serrato then completed another year of surgical training specializing in surgical nutrition. He has run the emergency room at CIMA Hermosillo, twice served as the Head of Surgery at the Hospital General del Estado in Hermosillo as well as been a professor in both advanced trauma life support and general surgery. Dr. Serrato has been practicing surgery in Hermosillo since 1991, specializing in the areas trauma, advanced laparoscopic surgery and surgical education.